Chapter Three

Power of Assumption

from Power Of Awareness by Neville Goddard

Core Principle

“Man’s chief delusion is his conviction that there are causes other than his own state of consciousness.

All that befalls a man... all that is done by him... all that comes from him... happens as a result of his state of consciousness.

A man’s consciousness is all that he thinks and desires and loves... all that he believes is true and consents to.

That is why a change of consciousness is necessary before you can change your outer world.”

From Desire To Embodiment

“You must make your future dream a present fact.
You do this by assuming the feeling of your wish fulfilled.

You can create an ideal of the person you want to be... and assume that you are already that person.

If this assumption is persisted in until it becomes your dominant feeling... the attainment of your ideal is inevitable.”

The Key Shift

“You know a thing mentally by looking at it from the outside ... but you can know it spiritually only by becoming it.

You must be the thing itself... and not merely talk about it or look at it.”

From Desire To Embodiment

“You must make your future dream a present fact.
You do this by assuming the feeling of your wish fulfilled.

You can create an ideal of the person you want to be... and assume that you are already that person.

If this assumption is persisted in until it becomes your dominant feeling... the attainment of your ideal is inevitable.”

Identity And Living From It

“To incarnate a new and greater value of yourself... you must assume that you already are what you want to be...
and then live by faith in this assumption.

This is what wholeness means... what integrity means...
the submission of the whole self to the feeling of the wish fulfilled.”

Responsibility & Creation

“In your ability to assume the feeling of a greater life... to assume a new concept of yourself... you possess imagination... the instrument by which you create your world.”

Choice

“Your nature is such that it is optional to you whether you remain in your present concept of yourself... or choose to become the instrument of your own redemption... imagining yourself as that which you want to be... and thereby redeeming yourself.”

“O be strong then, and brave, pure, patient and true;
the work that is yours let no other hand do.”
